

Sunday, May 1. 2011

The birth of a word

MIT researcher Deb Roy wanted to understand how his infant son learned language -- so he wired up his house with videocameras to catch every moment (with exceptions) of his son's life, then parsed 90,000 hours of home video to watch "gaaa" slowly turn into "water." Astonishing, data-rich research with deep implications for how we learn. Zur vollständigen Seite...

Posted by Tom Levold in Video at 00:00